Puakō Citizen Science “Train the Trainers” Workshop

When: Saturday, August 5, 2017

Where: Mānā Christian `Ohana in Waimea (Classroom Training)
Paniau – Puakō (Field Training)

Time: 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Details: We are looking for interested stakeholders who would like to participate in Citizen Science for Puakō and Waialea Bay. Learn how to gather water quality data through hands-on techniques developed from the successful Hui O Ka Wai Ola Citizen Science Program model based in Maui. You’ll also learn the quality assurance procedures approved by the Department of Health. This program will serve as a guide for Citizen Science on the Big Island.

RSVP: Please email dswenson@coral.org or call 808.721.6614 by August 3, 2017
